

January, 22

Moscow.

Dear Lars, Dagfinn, Wiggo!

Do you remember our Moscow meet and this time
which we had spent together?
It was seven months ago
in June, 1971.

Excuse us please for our silent. The matter that we haven't much free time is not justification us. We are the undergraduates now. We must study very much, to work with diploma, to train in our kinds of sport and many other things. It's very difficult you see. But now we want write to you often, because it's very interesting to know about your life, your study and hobby.

If you remember after our international football match your friends had made some group photos. Send us, please, some this photos, if it's not so hard work for you.

Write us about your study, please. How do you spend your free time? Do you interest painting, theatre, classic and pop-music? If you interest Russian painters of XVIII-XVIII century we can send to you albums with works of art Vasnetsova, Serova, Perova, Trybel and other;

opera and classic music of Russian composers.

Send us, <sup>please</sup> if it's not so difficult to you postcards
with views of the Norway's cities, with monuments of Norway, prospectus of museums.

May we ask you a favour to send us some pair of socks and some wide neck-ties.

We are waiting for your letter.

All the best.
Your Moscow's friends
Egor (Ginger) and Sasha.